Aware

The Leading Collaboration Intelligence Platform

AWARE'S VISION

Modern collaboration presents an enormous opportunity, but many organizations struggle with managing its inherent risks and have little idea of its true incredible, potential value.

Aware was purpose-built to understand human collaboration, both its risks and great opportunities. We help empower organizations with everything from real-time toxicity analysis to uncovering your frontline's greatest hidden idea, this is the future of human-centered business.

YOU'RE IN GOOD COMPANY

Aware supports global deployments with some of the world's most innovative brands.
